

ISSUE A CHALLENGE TO RECALL ELEMENT TO PROVE CHARGES

DOUGHERTY ASKS NICHOLS MEN TO SUBSTANTIATE SLANDEROUS STATEMENTS AT MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT.

ISSUE IS MADE CLEAR

"It's a Question of Regulating the City's Morals," Says Mayor Fathers in Address at Chairmen's
Mass Meeting.

"Re-elect Mayor Fathers by a 500 majority" was the slogan adopted at the mass meeting of men, women and children, who were members of the various churches and societies of the city, held at the Baptist church last evening. W. H. Dougherty, who made an eloquent address and a sincere appeal in behalf of the present administration, was responsible for the phrase which will doubtless be heard often during the coming week.

To make the defeat of the recall element a reality, it was emphasized, every friend of the present administration must work personally for the cause of clean government. The means by which the best work may be accomplished is through the various ward committees with which every voter who has the city's best interests at heart is urged to ally himself.

Mr. Dougherty in his speech issued a challenge to the leaders of the recall party to appear at the mass meeting at the Myers theatre on Friday evening and explain specifically the charges which they have made against Mayor Fathers, the principal one of which was that he had been guilty of incompetency. "I'd like to know how many of you men would defend yourselves against such a charge," was one of Dougherty's remarks.

"If these recalcitrants don't come before that jury of citizens on Friday night and present their cause and explain where they stand, we shall claim a judgment by default on Saturday morning," declared Mr. Dougherty.

"Let them substantiate these charges which they have made or we will hurl them back at them in all their himself. This campaign of slander must cease."

"We don't want a majority of one hundred, or of two hundred, or of three hundred, or of four hundred, for Mayor Fathers at the polls on July 22nd, but we want a majority of five hundred, and we can make it if you fellows will get out and work."

Must Prove Statements.
"We have given them the offer," they have our challenge, and if they do not appear to prove their slanderous statements, ours is the victory by default."

Both Mayor Fathers and Mr. Dougherty went over the statements of the recall advertisements in "The Gazette" and "The Wisconsin State Journal" in all their frivolity and branded as silly and ridiculous. "They have attempted to appeal to ignorance and prejudice, and draw away your attention from the real issue in this fight," said Mayor Fathers.

Mr. Fathers was the first man to be called upon following the election of the chairman of the evening, A. S. Krotz. Mr. Fathers spoke directly and fearlessly. He did not doubt, in the minds of the thousands who stood on the big issue of the campaign, he is fighting for a clean city, for a moral city, for a well regulated city, where the laws are enforced and where all are treated with equality.

Regulation of Morals.
"After all attempts to mislead the voters have been thrown aside, the issue in this fight is narrowed down to the regulation of the morals of this city," declared the mayor in his address. "There has been no consistent attempt to eliminate the real issue by drawing in other matters or a frivolous nature. They have no specific charges, except those which appeared in their advertisement in the Gazette tonight."

Mr. Fathers then took up separately each of the statements and discussed them. In regard to the water works case, he again went over the facts carefully. The administration knew that there was a suit in court between the city of Racine and the Racine water company which involved the same legal points as were apparent in the Janesville case. It was the idea of the Janesville officials to come to an agreement with the local water company on the matter of purchase, price, terms and other details, without the interference of the railroad contented if it was possible when it was found that the city and the company were far apart in the matter of the price the city was forced to go to the commission and a physical valuation was made.

Water Works Case.
"This will mean a matter of litigation which no man can hasten," declared his Honor. "And in all this tangle we were confronted with the legal question as to whether the vote to purchase the water plant was legally taken owing to the wording of the question as presented to the voters during the previous administration."

In addition to this Mr. Dougherty pointed out that another important question had been involved in the case which had contributed to the delay. No provision was made at the time for the means of paying for the water company and the administration faced the proposition of perhaps being thrown down when they went to the voters for the money to pay for the plant on a bond issue.

He then charged Mayor Fathers with the same law firm that is employed by the Janesville water company, and that he has compromised himself by his conduct. "This is exceedingly frivolous. When this recall fight was thrust upon me, I was anxious to secure the very best legal talent that I could find in order to act with the utmost caution and care in order to protect the interests of the city and its citizens from unnecessary expense and entanglement. Further than this I had nothing to do with the attorneys for the water company. No thinking man can take this insinuation seriously."

Street Proposition.

Madison, Wis., July 16.—Governor McGovern today denied the application for extradition of Morris Perlstein, general manager of a large Milwaukee knitting works, charged with abandonment by his wife who is living in Philadelphia.

Perlstein who is said to be a wealthy Philadelphia is the man who was taken from a fashionable hotel in Milwaukee last week and according to his statements was not permitted to call a lawyer or notify his friends. After being incarcerated two days, he says, he got word to his business partner by smuggling a note to him in hotel dishes from when he secured his meals.

Captain of detectives John T. Sullivan of Milwaukee, made application for the extradition, but the governor refused the request because Perlstein showed he was a resident of Milwaukee on July 21, 1912, the date the police claimed he deserted his young bride in Philadelphia.

HAY BARN IS DESTROYED ON WILLIAM LLOYD FARM

Building Owned by William J. Jones
Of This City Burns to Ground With Its Contents.

Lightning struck a hay barn on the farm of William Lloyd in Emerald Grove between eight and nine o'clock last evening, and the building with its contents, twenty tons of hay, was entirely destroyed. It stood close to other farm buildings but the wind blew the flames away from them and they were saved. More than fifty men from neighboring farms helped to prevent the fire from spreading, their being no hope of saving the hay barn. The barn and the hay it contained belonged to William J. Jones, residing at 102 Forest Park boulevard, this city. The loss is partially covered by insurance. The barn was comparatively new. So bright were the flames that the illumination of the sky was noticed by people in this city.

ARE SUSPICIOUS OF RECENT AGREEMENT

Railways Warded Their Proposition
In Such a Way It Is Difficult to Understand.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, July 16.—The new phase of the arbitration proceedings between eastern railroads and their brainless and conductors, namely, whether the roads will insist on presenting their grievances against the men while the latter argue for higher pay, was the subject of discussion today between the conference committee of railroad managers and representatives of the union.

Since agreeing to arbitration under the Newlands act the labor leaders have been scrutinizing the railroad's letter yielding to arbitration and they are worried lest the words "submit to arbitration all questions" contain something in the nature of a joker. To determine if possible just how broad a hearing the roads expect they asked for today's conference. The Erie railroad had not today withdrawn its refusal to be a party to arbitration.

Messrs. Lee and Garretson, today insisted that the Erie must abide by the findings of the arbitration board. No announcement was made concerning the status of the Erie railroad which recently withdrew from the proceedings nor did either side issue a statement concerning the new phase of the situation. The intention of the roads to insist that their grievances against the men be aired along with the latter's request for higher pay.

MOTHER SELLS GIRL AND LATER REPENTS

waukee Men Who Purchased Daughter.

Milwaukee, July 16.—Accused of buying pretty Anna Gorzo, 16 years old from her mother for $30 and then shipping her to Philadelphia, N. J., Henry Herzog, 34 years old, and Paul Boy, 28 years old, were today arrested charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. In district court the case was continued until July 23, and the men are being held under bonds of $500 each.

Mrs. Marguerite Gorzo the mother is the complainant. She asserts that the person who boarded at her home so poisoned her mind against her daughter that she was willing to sell the girl. She says her husband died six weeks ago and that the transaction was completed on Sunday. The girl was shipped east that night, she claims.

Later she avers, she was sorry she sold the girl, went to the police and arrests followed.

The police at Philadelphia have been asked to take the girl into custody and bring her back to Milwaukee as the chief witness against the men.

PRESIDENT SUMMONS AMBASSADOR WILSON

AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE AT MEXICO CITY ORDERED TO WASHINGTON.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TO CONFER ON MEXICO

Will Mean Definite and Important Action With Reference to Recent Protest to Powers on Mexican Situation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, July 16.—President Wilson today after an early conference with Secretary Bryan over the later aspects of the Mexican situation, presented by the inquiries of foreign powers, as to the attitude of the United States, ordered Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson at Mexico City to proceed to Washington immediately for a conference.

Ambassador Wilson will hurry north on either the battleship Michigan or Louisiana from Vera Cruz, if any delay would be entailed by waiting for a commercial steamer.

Officials here believe that the almost total interruption of railway traffic between Mexico City and the United States will force the ambassador to make his trip by water. He is not expected here before July 23 at the earliest.

Means Important Action.
It is believed in official and diplomatic circles that an important announcement of the attitude of the United States in the pending situation will follow the ambassador's conference with the president and Secretary Bryan. The president's action today following closely the foreign powers which already have recognized the Huerta government were pressing for some indications of this government's attitude toward the continued disorders in Mexico, leads to that belief.

Secretary Bryan positively declined to add any information to his brief announcement of Ambassador Wilson's coming to Washington.

Was First Word.
However, it is assumed that the administration desires to learn from the ambassador directly what influence actuated the foreign diplomatic representatives in Mexico when they jointly agreed to address their governments with what amounted to a formal complaint against the attitude of the United States in its relations with the Huerta regime.

President Wilson has kept an open mind on the subject and is thought to feel himself bound to adhere to that policy he announced early in his administration of lending moral encouragement only to such governments in Latin America were founded upon constitutional law and practice.

However, it is understood that he is ready to give the weight to any representations Ambassador Wilson may care to make.

Private Reports.
The president has had the benefit of private reports from several of his personal friends who have traveled in Mexico recently, but these were unofficial and not sufficient to form the basis of a change in policy if there were to be any change in policy.

Secretary Bryan was asked if the coming of Ambassador Wilson to Washington would change his projected lecture tour. He replied:

"The newspapers might have assumed that my lecture dates would not interfere with business, instead of assuming that they would. All my lecture dates were made subject to cancellation."

YOUTH NOT GUILTY OF MURDERING GIRL

Coroner's Jury Renders "Not Guilty"
Verdict in Trial Regarding Mysterious Death of Girl.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 16.—Clearing up of the mystery surrounding the death of Alice Cristell, was shifted today to the Luzerne County court, where Judge Fuller heard arguments on a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Herbert Johns, who is held without bail in connection with the girl's death.

Johns, who was the sweetheart of Miss Cristell, was the last person seen with her on the night of the Fourth of July, the night she disappeared. Three days later the girl's body was found in Harvey's Lake. Johns disclaimed any knowledge of how the girl lost her life, and the coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Johns had no connection with Miss Cristell's death.

The following night, however, Johns was given a hearing before a justice of the peace who declared that a prima facie case had been made out and held Johns to await the action of the grand jury. The evidence against the prisoner is purely circumstantial.

FINED FOR WEARING FAMOUS SLIT SKIRT

Blossom Browning Pays $25 Fine For Exposure Today.—Harris Remark At Judge.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Richmond, Va., July 16.—Blossom Browning, paid a $25 fine in Judge Crutchfield's court here today for wearing a slit skirt and declared she intended to go to New York at once, where people are not pruddish." She was charged with indecent exposure. The skirt slit knee high, was introduced by the police as evidence but was restored to Miss Browning on her promise to sew up the slash or not to appear in the streets of Richmond without the skirt.

Miss Browning's lawyer argued that the sale of a skirt by a licensed department store permitted her to wear it. Judge Crutchfield replied that a city license for the sale of fire-arms did not authorize indecent exposure.

The justice after an inspection of the offending skirt blushing fined the defendant. She paid with the remark that "Richmond was a most liberal city."

BALKAN SITUATION CHANGES BUT LITTLE

Turkey Again Ecomes Active—
Greece Pushes Claims—

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Constantinople, July 16.—The government is determined to push forward Ottoman troops as far as the stronghold of Adrianople, captured by the Bulgarians after a long siege during the recent Balkan war.

Although official circles in Constantinople are silent on the subject, it is understood that such a forward step is the deliberate plan of the government. It intends to take this action not only because of the material advantages to be gained, but because of the moral effect it will have on Turkey's internal situation.

Means Internal Strength.
It is expected by this means the position of the government will be strengthened and consolidated and it is felt that even if the powers insist on bringing pressure to bear to compel the maintenance of the future frontier line between Turkey and Bulgaria from Enos to the Aegean sea to Midia on the Black Sea, Turkey will yet be in a position to enforce the autonomy of the province of Thrace.

Thus far, however, the powers have not addressed any communication to the Turkish government on the subject of the advance of the Ottoman troops toward the north.

Bulgars Sack Town.
Salonica, July 16.—Full confirmation of the sacking and burning of the Macedonian town of Seres by the fleeing Bulgarian troops and of the crucifixion, lacking to death or burning alive of many inhabitants has been sent to the Austro-Hungarian government by consul general August Krul of Salonika.

Three fourths of the formerly flourishing town of about 300,000 inhabitants is a mass of smoking ruins, says the consul general, who has just returned here from Seres where he thoroughly investigated the situation.

Another Massacre.
Another horrifying story of massacre reached here today from Dora, a town 40 miles to the northwest of Salonika. Muslims there have made a written declaration countersigned by three local Bulgarian priests that the Bulgarians slaughtered 30,000 Muslims who had taken refuge in Dora from the surrounding country.

MULHALL BARES PLANS

Brings Story of Lobby Operations in Washington Down to Year 1908—Implicates Speaker Cannon.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, July 16.—Martin W. Mulhall brought the story of his lobbying activities before the National Association of Manufacturers up to 1908 before the senate committee today and testified about the work of the association in promoting a tariff commission.

The association wanted Miles and Schwedman on it and wanted to control it themselves, Mulhall testified. He did not explain who Miles was. Schwedman was secretary to President Van Cleave of the association. James A. Emery, counsel for the manufacturers, wrote Mulhall on January 16, 1908:

"Doubtless you know we had a tussle on the floor of the house last Saturday where an attempt was made by the democrats under cover of an amendment to a conspiracy provision of the revised statutes to enact some of the worst features of the extreme labor legislation now before the judiciary committee. Our friends stood firm and the attempt to make campaign plunder was squelched in the most admirable way and very happily, the democrats, Swank, Sherley, of Kentucky, took the chief part in the defense of the existing law and against the proposed amendment."

Another letter from Mulhall written at Indianapolis on June 17, 1908, to Schwedman at St. Louis, reported how "Mr. Watson had a large majority of the machine under his control."

"The convention of the miners will be held here on the 21st," it continued. "They certainly expect Gompers, Duncan and others. Three of the district presidents from the anthracite fields are coming. My friends, I feel I might be able to do good work through these gentlemen and it is too bad we are short of funds when the convention is coming with the opportunities for use."

Mulhall said he met Van Cleave and Schwedman on a train passing through Indianapolis, January 19, 1908, told them of the Watson campaign and spoke about $100,000 being needed.

On January 19, Mulhall wrote Schwedman:

"Mr. Watson on Friday, told me that if there was any danger of any class legislation being brought up while he was absent from Washington to have Mr. Emery see Mr. Herndon. He also told me to write Emery and say that Speaker Cannon would receive him at any time, and that he could talk freely and fully to a speaker and that everything would be all right."

Heart to Heart Talks

LANGUAGE IN THE MAKING.
The Clean Language League of America is making a campaign against the use of profanity, suggestive words, certain slang terms and songs and slang.

So far as profanity, vulgarity and some of the slang music are concerned, the league's work should be applauded.

Perhaps also as to some of the slang expressions.

But let them not become purists and old fogies in censoring everything called slang.

Some of these slang phrases are most expressive and alive.

They are the new minted coin of speech.

All language in the making is called slang by some people.

Shakespeare wrote in the slang of his day—that is, in the language that was new—and his words have become classic.

The slang of today is the dictionary of tomorrow.

In this progressive age there is no need to become afraid of a thing simply because it is new, even though it be a new phrase.

The idioms of each language were at one time its slang. Yet it is these idioms that give it character, piquancy and life.

Much of the slang of today will die, of course. It ought to. But not all of it. Nor is any self appointed school of censors capable of saying just what words and phrases will die and what will live.

There is a higher court—that of all the people, and not only those now living, but those yet to be born.

Language is not a marble statue, the same yesterday, today and forever. Rather it is a lake, ever in motion and fed by springs. Words are constantly dying or becoming obsolete, and others are being born. Very many of these baby words and phrases we call slang.

Others are made up by scientists or others from impossible Greek and Latin combinations. The slang ones have at least the advantage of being shorter and hence better.

The slang of each age fits the activities and thoughts of that age. What could be more expressive than "making good," "delivering the goods" or "on the job?" Not elegant perhaps, but vital.

Don't dam the springs that bring living waters into the lake.

Thought Window Was a "Movie."
At the general assembly of the Presbyterians in Edinburgh a home mission deputy told this story to illustrate the part the picture theater plays in a modern child's life.

A little girl, being taken to church by her mother, viewed a stained glass window for a minute or two. "Ma," she asked, "when are they going to change the picture?"

The members of the Board of Public Works are conducting an investigation as to the financial condition of the various construction companies that submitted the lowest bids for the construction of a three mile reinforced concrete bridge over Rock River on Milwaukee street and on the Spring Brook bridge. The Gould Construction company of Davenport, Iowa, was the lowest bidder, their estimate for a complete bridge being $35,000. J. P. Cullen of Janesville was second with a bid of $27,500. BOARD OF EDUCATION WILL ORDER REPAIRS

Repairs to the school buildings of the city of a more or less extensive character have been ordered by the Board of Education following its four of inspection last Thursday morning and Friday afternoon. All ten buildings were visited. It was found that considerable painting, cleaning and decorating was needed, especially in the high school building. At the Jefferson and Washington schools the lighting will be improved fifty percent by the insertion of new windows and cement steps and a wide cement walk around the building will be put in. The new windows at the first named buildings will be put in between the present ones without breaking the walls beyond a wide margin of safety. The new playground apparatus at the Jefferson and Webster schools was inspected by the board as such for the first time.

Rid Your Children of Worms
You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, feverishness and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, regulates the bowels, restores the appetite, shows on their face the signs of health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Elgin, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it. Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. SPORT Snap-Shots Clark Griffith, the Old Fox is very keen about southpaws and wants his scouts to corral all the port side twirlers they chance upon. They are the goods in the pitching game says Clark and don't let anyone tell you different. "It has been argued by some," says Griffith, "that the left-handed lads aren't particularly effective against south paw batters. Such is not true. The fact of the matter is that there are a few southpaw batters who can connect with the left handed twirlers, but they are few indeed and they simply serve as exceptions to prove the rule. The most of them are as helpless as the new born lamb when they go up against the southpaw stuff, but right-handers aren't exactly entirely at ease if the southpaw hasn't anything at all. I'm for the left-handers and I want a whole pitching staff of them. I've spoken to my scouts about it and this fall each team that goes into Washington will have aboard quite a bit of promising young southpaw material.

Ty Cobb has a very nice chance to complete this year, a record that has not been made since the old day way back when they wore whiskers. Last season and the season before, Ty finished with a batting average of over .400. Could he keep up the clip this year and make it three seasons straight of batting over .400 he would have accomplished something that has not been done as long as the oldest settler can remember. "Of course," says Ty, "it would be great stuff to be able to put the thing over but the truth is the American league pitchers don't seem to be with me in this. Right now the class of pitching in the American league is top notch and then some and this makes it rather difficult to get four hits out of every ten trips to the plate. However I'm going to make a real hefty stall at it and maybe I'll ring the bell. I'll hope so."

As a general thing a defeated pug has nothing but knocks and slams for the man who put him flat on the floor. Charley White, however, after his fight with Jack Britton, was unable to sing too well to praises of that fast and crafty young lightweight and Charley says that Britton has everything else in his class looking like something the cat brought in. Britton seems to have inspired in White the greatest deference and respect. "He has the strangest and most effective style of boxing I have ever seen," says Charley. "By a little trick of footwork he is almost constantly out of range and never where you expect him to be the next moment. He leads at you in a puzzling fashion, shifting from side to side and then he comes in and is almost continually off balance. You know, I thought I could give most anyone in the game a boxing lesson, but honest he gave me one that was a peach. How he can be possibly be kept out of the championship is a mystery to me and I look to see him push aside every one in his path. Just paste that in your hand."

Henceforth when McGreevy is calling the balls and strikes Clark Griffith isn't going to pitch. Walter Johnson at all. According to what Walter had to say to his manager the other day after a game in which McGreevy had outpitched this very cat, follow Johnson's fast ones and as they cut the corners of the plate and carry quite a shoot McGreevy called most of 'em balls. Johnson said that McGreevy called about twenty strikes wrong in Philadelphia not long ago and Griffith agreed that this spoils the big Sweede's chances. So from now on Walter will have a day off whenever McGreevy is calling 'em behind the bat.

DE KALB SEEKING A RETURN GOLF MATCH

Invites Local Players to be Their Guests Over Night Some Day Next Week.

Letters have been received from the De Kalb golf club asking Janesville to send a team of golfers to their city some day next week, to play a return game. They invite the local players to be their guests over night and promise an elaborate entertainment.

BASEBALL CHATTER.

Meriden, Conn., is back in the Eastern association, taking the place of Holyoke. Joe Jackson, of the Cleveland Naps, is the first major league hitter to pass the 100 mark in base hits this season.

Otto Jordan's team at Valdosta, Ga., won the championship for the first half of the season in the Empire State league.

The Phillies were compelled to use thirty-three players in order to break even in a double-header with Boston recently.

Manager Josh Clarke, of Sioux City, leads the batsmen in the Western league, while "Casey" Hageman of Denver leads the pitchers.

Connie Mack's pitching staff looks rather wobbly this season, but the Athletics cop the games and that's what wins the pennants.

The White Sox are living up to their name of "hitless wonders." There is not a regular White Sox squad batting in 300 yet.

The veteran manager John McGraw has his Salt Lake City team planted at the top and is burning up the Union association circuit.

Seven of the Giants—Crandall, Snodgrass, Fletcher, Shafer, Herzog, Meyers and Merkle—are included in the list of 300 wallpapers in the National league.

Chas. Mathewson tops the list of pitchers in the National league, while Boebbling of the Washington team, leads among the American league heavies.

Los Angeles, San Francisco and Portland are traveling in a neck and at top speed for first honors in the pennant race of the Pacific Coast league.

"Scout" Izerton, the former Boston Brave who is now with Louisville, is out of the game for the rest of the season on account of a broken ankle.

A change of scenery seems to have helped Pitcher Leon Ames. He is going much better work for the Cincinnati Reds than he did with the Giants.

The speed of Joe Wood, of the Red Sox, is not all confined to his arm. He is mowing up well at bat and on the bases as well as doing excellent pitching.

The St. Paul team leads the American association both in club batting and club fielding, and yet it is a second division team. The leading-Columbus team is fourth in batting and fifth in fielding.

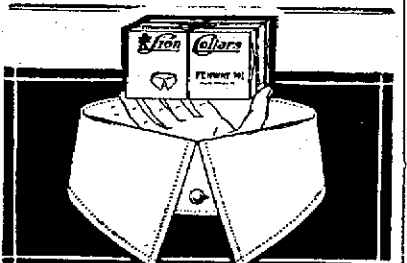

Brooklyn fans predict that Cutshaw, of the Superbas, is the coming star second sacker on the big boat. From the work the young man is doing at station two it would seem that the Brooklyn fans have made a good guess.

Manager Miller Huggins continues to play a star game for his St. Louis Cardinals. Besides hitting for 300 he is leading the run-getters and is among the dozen leading base-stealers in the National league.

Jack Knight is back in the big show. Jack has done considerable traveling since he started in the game. He has played with the Athletics, the Red Sox and with the Washington, Baltimore and Jersey City teams, and is now playing a return engagement with the New York Yankees.

Satisfied.

VOLLEY BALL GAMES ATTRACT ATTENTION

Game Between High School Boys Scheduled Tonight at Webster Play Grounds.

Because of the heavy rain last night the volley ball game between students of the high school representing the Jefferson and Webster school grounds was postponed until this evening. The contest will take place at the Webster grounds. There is a great amount of rivalry between the respective teams and a closely contested game is looked for. At both grounds the directors have scheduled a volley ball game for this afternoon between the girls and the boys and as all the pupils are rapidly becoming skillful at the game, exciting contests are anticipated.

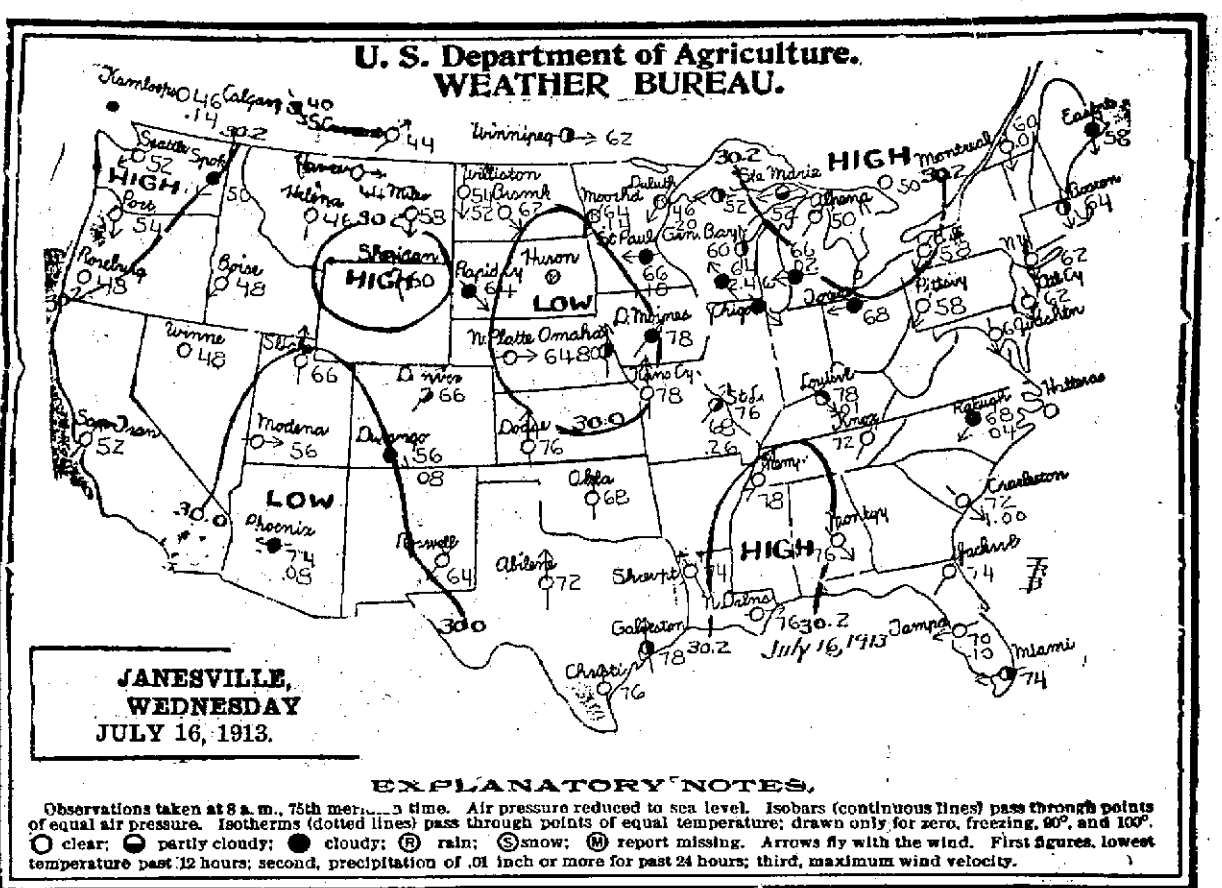

Beginning next week the directors plan to begin the drill and test work and the children will be divided into classes and scheduled games will take place. The organizing of the classes promises to make the games played more interesting. The attendance this week has not been as large as previous owing to the unfavorable weather.

What state capital?

July 16, 1913.—There has been practically no change in the distribution of atmospheric pressure since yesterday. There is a ridge of high barometer in the Appalachian Mountain region, running from eastern Ontario southward to the Gulf of Mexico. The barometer is low in the Missouri valley and on the southern plains. High pressures prevail on the north Pacific slope. Rain has fallen in a narrow belt, about 200 miles wide, running from South Carolina across Kentucky, Illinois, Southern Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, and Saskatchewan. The following heavy rains are reported in this belt: Madison, 2.47 inches; Charleston, 1.00; St. Paul, 1.52. It is hot in the Central states, and cool in the Northern Rockies.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Janesville and vicinity conditions are favorable for more showers and thunderstorms tonight and Thursday. There will be little change in temperature.

LEST WE FORGET.

There is a moral responsibility which should be felt by every individual. A responsibility not only for their own personal affairs, but also for the general good of their neighbors. To insure the protection of personal rights communities have banded together in corporations, have enacted certain restrictions, or laws, which shall govern their actions. These communities are part of the states which comprise the great nation of which each individual is an intricate part.

This individual responsibility oftentimes becomes dulled by inaction and neglect and persons not feeling the moral features of the laws especially binding, encroach upon the personal rights of others, disregard the laws and restrictions, until they come to believe they are above such things, and they make their own rules and regulations to suit themselves. Then comes the moral awakening. Then comes the rigid enforcement of the laws and the persons who have disregarded them are brought up with a sharp turn, punished, disciplined, and forced to obey.

Like spoiled children they resent the interference. They seek to revenge themselves upon the individuals who dared resent their control of public matters. They look around for some excuse to inflict pain and disgrace upon them. If they are strong enough, if they can rally enough other discontented persons to their cause, they can work considerable mischief in their blind anger.

This condition exists in Janesville. The fight for the recall is a fight for personal revenge—a fight led by men who believe their personal privileges have been trampled upon by the law. Who would revenge themselves upon the person of the mayor who, as an instrument of the law, compelled them to respect it, and the personal rights of others. The men who are behind the recall are the element who have ignored the laws of the state and city for so many years they believed themselves immune from any interference and, like the spoiled child deprived of its toys, they now resent the punishment and seek to oust the man from office who forced them to obey.

They term it persecution. Persecution of what? Persecution because they can not throw the city wide open to vice? Persecution because they can not run brothels, wine rooms, dice games, slot machines, disorderly saloons? Persecution because they can not invade the sanctity of the home by enticing the young girls to disgrace and the boys to become libertines? They did that with two misguided youths—mere boys—whose passions excited by the drink they had freely purchased, committed a heinous crime and are today paying the penalty at Waupun. Do they thirst for more?

It is to recover these old privileges that they have started this recall movement. They seek now to cloud the issue by injecting into it the question of the purchase of the Water Company, to criticize, the pavement of certain streets, to discuss changes made in the construction of a certain bridge, but it is only to blind the eyes of the voters to the real aim in view if they are successful, namely to throw the city wide open to the ruff tuff of the country.

The question of the purchase of the Water Company has no place in the present campaign being waged for decency or indecency. The candidate for the recall element blames the present mayor for failure to purchase the Water Company and insinuates he would close the matter up in five minutes. When this same candidate was mayor, presiding at the sessions of the common council, a resolution was passed directing the clerk of the city to submit the question, "Shall the city purchase the Water Company?"

Strange as it may appear, the state law-makers in all their wisdom, had provided for just such a contingency and in the statutes can be found that the question to be submitted is one whether the city shall purchase the Water Works, the physical property, not the company's equity, subject to the bonds secured by mortgages and any debts that the company may owe, and the state's utilities commission is at sea to determine whether the submission of the question to the voters is sufficient, and they can not say whether the commission is authorized to assess the value of the property, whether or not the judgment and findings would be binding.

It is not Mayor Fathers who is to be blamed for the delay, but the man who was mayor when the question was submitted and who is now again a candidate for the same office, making this mistake of his a plea for the votes of the people. Think of the business man, or a mayor, who hastily and without careful investigation, placed such a question before the people? If he were a fit man to become mayor, he would, before acting upon such an important matter for the city, at least have read the law under which he was proceeding. If then in doubt he would have consulted a good lawyer or the commission.

Evidently he is not only not fit for the office he is seeking, but fails to appreciate the difficulty into which his heedlessness and want of caution has plunged the city. If the purchase of the Water Company is to be infused into the present election the true facts should be known and the blame laid where it belongs, upon the man who would now adjust matters in a second, but whose ignorance of the law has led to the present complications.

There is but one issue before the voters of the city. A retention of Mayor Fathers and the enforcement of the laws and ordinances in the name of decency, or a return to the old obnoxious conditions, under the same "ring" that controlled affairs for so many years with indecency. In other words, "Law or Lawlessness—which will you have?"

So the thousand odd members of the Twenty-five Thousand club seeking the best interests of Janesville, the location of factories and the upbuilding of the city, have merely been organized for the boosting of the present administration. What do the members think of that statement coming from a man who seeks their vote and who refuses to affiliate himself with the progressive movement in Janesville's behalf?

After last night's addresses by the recall candidate and his immediate following this talk about water works, bridges or anything else having anything to do with the coming election, is all very queer. It is simply an issue of law or lawlessness.

Having tried the hunger and thirst strike, why don't the English suffragists try the air strike? Only a few minutes without breathing would be required to bring results.

Reformers in Denmark want to segregate the sexes at bathing beaches. Why not save time and breath by openly abolishing the beaches?

Congress is having a perfectly lovely and innocent time playing "Lobbyist, Lobbyist, Who's Got the Lobbyist?"

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

To the Editor of the Gazette:—
Replying to Mr. Dougherty's article in yesterday's Recorder.

We do not hold Mayor Fathers responsible for the acts and omissions of the Railroad Commission or the courts of Wisconsin, or in any delay they might have caused in the matter of the Janesville Water Company, but we do hold him responsible for his failure to have been the result of the election held in April 1912 on which the people decided to purchase this company on the twenty-first day of January, 1913. In view of the fact that he promised the city officials under the old form of government that if he would allow this question to go over his administration that his first official act would be to certify the results of this election to the Railroad Commission.

This promise he violated and on a net he did not attempt to perform, until nearly one year had elapsed and a petition had been successfully filed with the city clerk demanding his recall through election.

On receiving the certificate of the result of the election held in Janesville for the purchase of the water company, the Railroad Commission placed the matter on the calendar for a hearing on the 8th day of June, 1912. This hearing was to determine the correctness of the report made by the engineers of the Railroad Commission on the valuation of the water company.

At the hearing Mr. G. Jeffris appeared for the water company, City Attorney Dougherty, and Mayor Fathers for the city of Janesville, and

FROM A WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW.

An appeal is being made to the women of our city to interest themselves in the present campaign on the side of Mayor Fathers and the so-called "good government campaign."

In the opening paragraph of a recent statement made by Mayor Fathers and his committee they make mention of all the reforms that have taken place in our city because of their efforts and state that Mr. Fathers was selected upon public understanding that conditions must change—and that he has made this change.

Now in this statement the fact is plainly stated that he was fully cognizant of the public understanding of what was his duty when he assumed the office of mayor of Janesville.

With these facts before us as stated in his platform, comes the plain truth.

Had Mayor Fathers done his duty in the beginning of his administration and as he was expected to do, then this "crime" upon which so much stress is now being laid and for which a girl lost her life and two boys are now paying the penalty, could not and would not have happened.

Therefore upon Mayor Fathers' shoulders alone, rests the moral responsibility of this crime and upon no one else.

Even after this happened he made no effort towards reform and it was only after a mass meeting of citizens and a committee of fifteen had been chosen, did he then do anything to change conditions.

There is an old saying: "A man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still," but in this case it could be made to read: "A man COMPELLED against his will is of the same opinion still."

Now why are the women of our city asked to support Mayor Fathers?

A woman member of the Congregational church made the remark: "Oh, if the women only could vote, the present administration would get out in a hurry."

Another point to touch upon in this campaign is this: Are there not mothers and wives and sisters and children of the recall element?

Is there not the same love of home and family among these toilers in the shops and factories of our city as among any other class?

It is infamous to say that these men would wish to open flood-gates of vice to destroy the homes they have built up through honest toil.

Dr. Laughlin stated in his address at the union services at the Baptist church Sunday evening that he knew there are some very fine men on the side of the recall.

This statement however, was not published by the press. These men doubtless have homes and families. Now, can any fair minded progressive woman be made to believe that John Nichols and the men back of him would open the flood-gates of vice to destroy or break down homes.

This vile insinuation on the part of those opposing the recall is an infamous attack on the characters and manhood of the men who now seek to bring about a change in city officials and an insult to the wives and mothers of every recall voter.

announced to the commission that they had mutually agreed that the matter go over until after the decision of the Circuit Court of Racine County, in the case of the Racine Water Works.

Right here it should be borne in mind that this hearing before the Railroad Commission in the Janesville case, the same as the Racine case, had been passed on by the commission in the Racine case.

This delay the Railroad Commission did not ask for; they merely consented to it.

It should also be borne in mind that the decision handed down by the Railroad Commission in August 1911 in which they ordered the water company to furnish free meters, install service pipes, discontinue the $3.00 main tapping charge and reduce water rates from thirty-five cents per thousand gallons to seven and one-half cents per thousand gallons for meter water.

The Water company appealed to the Dane County Circuit Court claiming that it would cost them over $40,000 to comply with this decision as well as reduce their earnings below seven per cent.

Mayor Fathers has in no manner made any attempt to bring this case on for trial, but has allowed it to lay unheeded to where it was appealed.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

"WE WOULD THINKING IN PRIME FACTORS. That according to a well known modern writer, is a fact which any honest human being will admit. This author italicizes think. Whereby I judge that she means it to stand for something besides that feeble, follow-the-leader, take-things-for-granted process which goes on in the average human brain. Do you admit the 'soft impeachment'?"

Especially if by thinking she means getting right down to first principles on any problem, and working the whole thing out from start to finish for one's self. When a man gets the habit of doing that he certainly lifts himself out of the average class. A tremendously successful advertisement writer describes this way. "I try not to think in a groove or take anything for granted. When I am asked to write an advertisement about an article, I try not to think anything about how similar articles are advertised or what the customary line of thought is. Not on the other hand, do I try to be clever or original. I just do my best to begin at first principles, to start with the article to be advertised, and the kind of people who are to use it, and build the whole thing from those prime factors."

Now perhaps you think every good business man does that. But does he? Doesn't the average man take more things for granted than he realizes? Of course it is. And profession has its pass words, its traditions, its established customs, which have become such an integral part of it that no one realizes they exist.

To illustrate from the business with which I am the most familiar—I often hear newspaper men talking about ways and means to improve their particular papers. They talk in terms of "lead story," and "important news," etc., etc., and they think from the same newspaper viewpoint. Now, it seems to me that if a newspaper editor would try to forget newspaper traditions and to just think hard and all the time of people and what they want to read, he'd have a big start toward success.

Of course it is extremely difficult for anyone who is steeped in the viewpoint of any business to get away from it and get down to first principles. I suppose that is why those who do accomplish it tower above their fellows.

Now this habit of thinking from first principles is not valuable for business men alone; it helps everywhere.

For instance, if you have a church entertainment to get up and can think of people and what they like to do, instead of routine church entertainments, you will be more likely to produce something worth while.

The next problem you have to think out, try reducing everything to prime factors before you begin to think. And be very sure they are prime factors too, and not merely what the world has been in the habit of accepting as prime. It may make you wonder to think that way—I confess it makes mine—nevertheless I think it will pay.

SUMMER SALADS.

A rather unusual way of serving cucumbers is to peel and slice them in quarter-inch slices, then with a sharp knife peel round and round each slice, making ribbons. Heap these on lettuce and serve with French dressing.

Pineapples and pecan meats make a fine mixture for stuffing tomatoes; serve with a mayonnaise or boiled dressing. Garnish the top with squares cut from the lid of the tomato cup.

Asparagus, after being marinated in French dressing, may be put (three or four is a plenty) through a red or green pepper ring or even a ring of lemon or orange looks well, all laid on lettuce and served with a spoonful of mayonnaise.

A pretty salad is one served in the leaves of head lettuce, each leaf having a kind of vegetable, such as asparagus tips, sections of small tomatoes and celery, and the last finely cut apple; these are all marinated with French dressing and served with any kind of salad dressing. Arranged on a chop plate the salad is most attractive.

Lemon jelly accompanied by stuffed figs is something entirely new in combination. Prepare and mold the jelly and unmold on a large plate, surround with stuffed figs prepared by using creamed cheese well seasoned and moistened with cream. Make a slit in the side of each fig, stuff and serve with the lemon jelly.

Chiffonade Dressing—This is a great favorite. Mix two tablespoons each of red pepper and parsley finely chopped, one teaspoonful of chopped green onion, two hard-boiled eggs (whites and yolks chopped separately), pepper and salt, and five tablespoons of olive oil with two of vinegar. Put in a jar and let stand an hour or two on ice, then shake well before using. Serve on head lettuce or any green salad.

The proportion so well liked by many in French dressing is five of oil and two of vinegar.

FOR THE NECK AND SHOULDERS

A Free Prescription That Instantly Obliterates Blemishes, Tan, Freckles and the Marks Left By High Collars.

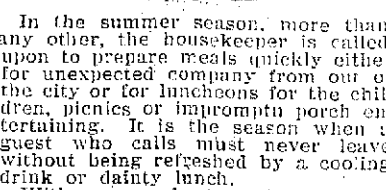

The Dutch neck and the evening gown too often expose the discoloration and blemishes of high collars to the effects of tan and freckles. It is easy to overcome these conditions and make the neck beautiful and white and soft and smooth—to overcome, in other words, every blemish and make the low neck as attractive as it is comfortable. This preparation can also be used on the shoulders and face, and it is marvelously effective to beautify the hands and arms.

If you want to try it, go to your drugist and get a one-ounce bottle of Kalux Compound. Pour the entire contents into a two-ounce bottle, add with water. Prepare this at your own home. One application will do it. It is deliciously cool and soothing and it is not affected by perspiration. It will not rub off.

If you put it on one hand only, or on one side of the neck and note the difference, you will see the wonderful change it makes instantly. The results are immediate and continued use of this preparation will keep your skin as soft and smooth as a child's. Advertisement.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

CONDUCTED BY MRS. ALICE GUTCHELL YORK.

In the summer season, more than any other, the housekeeper is called upon to prepare meals quickly either for unexpected company from out of the city or for luncheons for the children, picnics or impromptu porch entertaining. It is the season when a guest who calls must never leave without being refreshed by a cooling drink or dainty lunch.

With many a hostess the desire is there to do all this if she only had the material on hand ready for such serving. It would be so easy to serve a cool glass of lemonade if the syrup was already boiled and the lemon juice squeezed and these in the refrigerator. It would then only be necessary to shave a little ice, put a doily on the tray, a plate of dainty cakes, add juice, syrup and water to the glass and the lemonade or any fruit juice drink would be very easy to serve.

The idea is to plan to do as much preparation, which requires a fire, in the cool of the morning as possible. Or, if there are bread crumbs or cheese to grate with a little thought moment's notice. There are many emergency supplies to have always on the shelf ready at a moment's notice. A list of these was given in a previous article, if you have carefully saved and indexed this list add it to the list of "extras" which I give below.

Salad Dressing—This should be made at least a pint at a time and put into a fruit jar and sealed and kept in the refrigerator ready for sandwiches, salads or appetizers when diluted with a little whipped cream. It will keep for several weeks.

Fruit Syrup—When canning fruit make a larger quantity of syrup than necessary and put it into pint jars for desserts, cold drinks, ices, etc.

The Sugar Syrup—For use in making lemonade, orangeade, punch or any of the fruit juice drinks.

Cold Tea and Coffee—Make strong infusions and keep in glass or porcelain ready for use at once with the ice very fresh.

Cold Chocolate—This will keep longer when made without milk, making it thin enough so it will blend easily with milk when wanted.

Fruit Juices—Have grape, pineapple, lemon or orange juice always in jars, cold and ready for use at any call. Ginger ale is easily kept and is nice to mix with the fruit juices occasionally.

Cheese—Grate dried slices of cheese and keep in a closed jar in a cool place. Then it is ready at once for salads, sandwiches, au gratin dishes, etc.

Hard Cooked Eggs—Cook a dozen or more at a time and use for creamed eggs, salad, deviled eggs, garnishing salads, meats, etc.

Cold Boiled Potatoes—Cook double or triple the quantity and keep in potato salad, sautéed potatoes, quick sautéed potatoes, potatoes au gratin, creamed potatoes, or potato soup.

Cold Cooked Vegetables—Cook more than necessary of all kinds of vegetables and keep ready for salads and souffles.

Cold Meats and Fish—Have them ready for slicing, creaming salads, etc., or make into jellied or pressed dishes. Cold ham, tongue and corn beef are particularly acceptable in hot weather.

Cake—Make plain loaf or sponge cake, doubling the recipe and when the first freshness has gone, use with fruits, soft custards and cream for simple, quick desserts.

Cookies—That will keep well should be made when convenient and the weather cool in considerable quantities.

Bread—When baking bread make up pans of crusty rolls, cinnamon rolls and coffee cakes.

Pastry—Make and bake pastry shells—pie and tart size. These will remain fresh for two or three days if kept in a cool, dry place. Uncooked pastry may be kept for a long time in the refrigerator.

All these while getting breakfast the morning while getting breakfast or immediately afterwards. When the oven is heated for one purpose, see that other things which may be used a day or two later are baked.

Health and Beauty Hints

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Dolly: I know anointing shampoos will make your head feel good and restore the former gloss and full to your hair and the color will then be rich and even. Dissolve a teaspoonful camphor in a cup hot water and rub briskly as you pour a little at a time on the head. You will be surprised at the wealth of the white matter camphor creates and how quickly it disappears every particle of dust, dandruff and excess oil, leaving the hair and scalp wonderfully sweet and clean while the hair dries quickly and loses its dull, harsh appearance. You will find that the hair looks better after each shampoo.

Blanch: Your blood troubles are not necessarily serious and I am sure you will find quick relief in hardening. Make a cold cream by mixing 1 ounce of alcohol, 1/2 pint alcohol and one whisky, then add 1/2 cupful sugar and hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful three times a day and your blood vessels will disappear and those severe headaches will also vanish. I have often recommended this hardening cream to my patients for its use will rid the skin of tan and freckles.

Loth: You should use a plain spumax lotion in place of more clogging powder. This lotion is very beneficial to any skin because it tones the delicate tissues and permits the pores to breathe properly. To prepare, dissolve 4 ounces spumax in 1/2 pint water with hazel or hot water, then add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. This lotion will not blow off like powder, nor can it be detected when oil, as it really seems part of the skin. The regular use of the spumax lotion corrects the shiny, yellow, lifeless or aged condition of the skin and gives to the complexion that youthful freshness so much admired. Its use will rid the skin of tan and freckles.

Elbet: No dear, nothing will change the color of your eyes, but the itching will stop if you simply have to have all the delicacies of the season away ahead of the season. The prices are outside their income, but perish the thought that a title like that deters them from having said delicacies. The grocer is long-suffering when they get to the extreme edge of their credit in one store—why, there's other stores and this particular grocer never was a good person to deal with anyway. He was rude, he was not intelligent, he did not deliver promptly, in short you wonder how he ever had the effrontery to think he could succeed in business.

If he happen to fail—it was his inability. It NEVER was because you and I and many more of his patrons failed to pay our honest debts. Unpleasant subject, unworthy of serious consideration! Dismiss it! From package goods to honesty may be a far cry. To stay inside of one's income today, tomorrow and every day is a cry that in justice to all should be heard and heeded by every fair-minded, honorable person in our United States.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING. After filling a rubber water bottle with hot water, it is a good plan to press the sides of the bottle before putting in the stopper. This allows all the steam to escape and prevents a little danger of the seams coming undone no matter how hot the water may be.

To Clear Carpet Sweeper—Remove brush, and after taking off all the hairs and lint, rub it with a cloth wet in kerosene (coal oil). Let brush remain in the air (ill) odor has evaporated. The sweeper will leave the carpet and rugs looking much brighter after this treatment.

Kerosene will make boots or shoes hardened by water soft and pliable as new.

To save much trouble and annoyance sew two small buttons on the ends of corset cover or ribbons, you will find they never slip and you will not stop dressing to have to adjust.

The Table. Frozen Fruit Pudding—Make a custard of six yolks of eggs, two cupfuls of milk, and one cupful of sugar when cool add one teaspoonful each of vanilla and lemon extract, and two cupfuls of whipped cream.

Dissolve one and one-half tablespoonfuls of powdered gelatin in one cupful of boiling water; when cool, strain into the custard. Have ready a mold lined with candied fruits cut into discs, pour in mixture and pack in ice salt for four and one-half hours.

Hock Cup—One bottle of hock, one bottle of soda water, three slices of pineapple, one heaping tablespoonful of sugar, ice. Mix all these ingredients together in a pitcher. Place it on ice, and when serving add plenty of crushed ice.

Blackberry Cordial—Wash the blackberries, well, put in a clean saucepan, and let them heat thoroughly, stirring often but do not allow to boil. Do not add any water. Strain through a cheese cloth bag, leaving only the seeds in the bag. Cook in the juice, and to every quart, add two cupfuls of sugar; put on the stove, add two inches of stick cinnamon, allspice and cloves tied in a muslin bag. Boil until the syrup is thick, for twenty-five minutes when done set aside to cool, add two cupfuls of best brandy. Bottle and seal tightly.

Frozen Egg Nog—Boil one quart of cream in a double boiler. Beat the yolks of eight eggs with two cupfuls of sugar, then pour over the boiling milk, put back in pan and stir until the mixture thickens. It must not boil. Remove from the fire and allow to cool, then add half a cupful of brandy, half a cupful of cherry wine, and the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Freeze.

Frozen Custard—Beat up the yolk of one egg with six level teaspoonfuls of sugar; when light pour in gradually one cupful of milk. Cook in a double boiler until it thickens, stirring all the time. Then fold in the stiffly beaten white of the egg and allow to stand in a cool place. When cold stir in one tablespoonful of sherry or port wine, then freeze.

A Speedy Fault. Mr. Agile (to Mr. Stoutman, running for a car). "Hallo, old boy! I thought you were too lazy to run like that." Mr. Stoutman (languidly). "Easily explained, my dear boy; laziness runs in our family."—Lippincott's.

LAW PROVIDES LABOR FOR JAIL PRISONERS

MEASURE PASSED BY LEGISLATURE MAKES AMPLIFIED PROVISIONS FOR EMPLOYMENT OF JAIL INMATES.

SOLVES BIG PROBLEM

Gives Sheriff Power to Make Out Contracts for Employing Convicted Persons and Payment of Their Wages to Dependents.

Persons committed to the Rock county jail or other similar institution in Wisconsin from henceforth will be provided with ample employment under the provisions of the act which has been passed by the legislature and which is now in effect following publication.

The measure is far reaching in scope and covers such cases where a county workhouse is maintained and also instances where there is no such institution. In the latter case the sheriff is given the power to make contracts for the employment of the prisoners and in all cases the wages of the prisoners, or a portion of them, go to the support of persons dependent on the prisoners.

A committee of the Rock county board of supervisors has had the matter of employment of the jail inmates under consideration for some time and were expected to report at the annual meeting next November.

With the present law the matter is largely cleared away and is left to an administrative act on the part of the sheriff. J. A. Denning of this city was chairman of the county board committee.

The law as passed is given in full below and will doubtless meet with ready approval of all persons in the county who are acquainted with the present conditions.

(Pub. July 12, 1913.)

CHAPTER 625, LAWS OF 1913.

An act to amend and supplement the statutes, relating to the employment of persons committed to jails and workhouses at hard labor and the payment of their earnings to those dependent upon them.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 697c of the statutes is amended to read: Section 697c. Upon the commitment of any person to any county jail or workhouse the county clerk shall notify in writing each justice of the peace, police justice and the judge of every court held in his county of the fact and thereafter whenever any male person over sixteen years of age shall be convicted within such county of any offense of which a justice of the peace under the general law has jurisdiction to hear, try and determine or any person convicted in any court of any felony, where a sentence is imposed by the court, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the workhouse or in the county jail as provided in the next subsection in the discretion of the court at hard labor, and the commitment shall be to such workhouse at hard manual labor.

Any person committed to such workhouse who shall be of sufficient ability to do so, refuse to work diligently may be confined in solitary confinement not to exceed ten days for each refusal to so work the period of such confinement being discretionary with the superintendent, who shall receive bread and water only during such time. No intoxicating beverage shall be furnished to or used by any person committed to any workhouse during his confinement therein.

The court sentencing such persons shall have power to fine or impose such sentence is imposed or at any time thereafter during the time of such sentence to direct the kind of labor at which such persons shall be employed and the nature of the work and treatment such person shall receive during such sentence. Such direction of such court shall be based upon a reasonable consideration of the health and training of such person and his ability to perform labor of various kinds and the ability of the sheriff to find and furnish various kinds of employment. The county jail of such county is extended to any place within the county where said work is so provided by the sheriff. The sheriff shall at all times have the custody of such convicted person.

(b) Every person employed under the provisions of this subsection who shall prior to his sentencing be assigned to him shall, for willingness, industry and good behavior in such performance, be entitled to a deduction from the time of his sentence of one-fourth of the time thereof. And the court shall at the same time designate the person to whom payments are to be made for such dependent person or persons, as hereinafter provided, the name of which person shall also appear in the docket of said court and in said commitment. It shall be the duty of the sheriff at the end of each week to pay over to the person designated in said commitment for the person or persons so found to be dependent on such convicted person for support, a sum equal to the value of the earnings of such person, collected by him, in case such convicted person has worked for the county, then the sheriff shall, at the end of each week, deliver to the person so designated to receive same, an order on said county, payable to the person, for an amount equal to one dollar per day for the number of days that such person has actually worked for such county. Said order shall state who has earned said money and who are entitled to same for support.

(f) And it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of said county to pay said orders out of any available funds of said county on same being presented to him for payment.

UNCLE WALT
The Poet Philosopher

BY WALT MASON

As Spring on summertime approaches, the day of roasting ears approaches; this subject now the poet broaches with wholesome glee; at other times the bard supposes it's hands out to sing of roses, and so he sings out glorious doses of ecstasy. At other times he sings of lilies and maidenhair and daffodils until his hearers have the willies and reach for bricks; but if you ask him now to chirp, on GREEN winged steed, with foot in stirrup, a song of flowers, he's sure to rear up, and answer "Nix!" For roasting ears are now pervading the habits of men, and we are wading into the piles so quickly fading "neat eager hands; oh, roasting ears, we give you greeting! You are the treat, when gods are treating! You fill (we feel, when we are eating) all sane demands. Let epics express their wishes for wonderful and fearful dishes, for shredded fowls and scrambled fishes, the hampered dears; we common folk, with common stomachs, won't emulate the hampered hums; we only ask for piles and hummocks of roasting ears. We take the ear and spread the butter, and chew it with a cheerful splutter, our thoughts too heavenly to utter the crowd before, when filled we leave the groaning table, and walk six times around the stable, and then come back, as fast as able, and eat some more.

For You to Try
Lots of people keep on using coffee as a daily beverage, knowing that it is harmful, but are puzzled for something to take its place.
INSTANT POSTUM
fills the bill exactly.

This new food-drink tastes much like high-grade Java, but possesses the merit of being healthful, pure and absolutely free from the coffee drug—"caffeine"—which is the cause of much of the heart, stomach, liver and nerve disorders with which so many coffee drinkers are afflicted.

Fill out and mail the above coupon (enclosing 2c stamp for postage) and we will send you a miniature tin of Instant Postum containing enough for 5 cups.

Postum comes in two forms. Regular Postum (must be boiled). Instant Postum doesn't require boiling but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in an ordinary cup of hot water, which makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES

GRAPE-FRUIT (By Howard L. Rann.)

Grape-fruit is a sour-visaged imitation of breakfast food. It tastes like eating four raw lemons in rapid succession. It is a damp species of food and, unless approached with great caution, is liable to explode in the direction of the diner's eye-glasses.

Grape-fruit can be eaten at any time during the day, but is usually served as a curtain-raiser in order to prepare the guests for the coming afternoon. This is an excellent idea, for after a man has wrestled with the little banded grape-fruit and run down the last seed with the apex of one elbow in full view of the entire company, there will be a perceptible slowing up of his gastronomic ardor.

Before being served the grape-fruit is cut in two at the waist line and turned up so that the seeds can be detected with the naked eye. A careful count has demonstrated that there are 11,724 of these seeds in every half section of grape fruit, all of which have to be pried out by brute force.

This is a delicate process, for the seeds are liable to his pick under two or three seeds which let go before he is ready and make an abrupt dive into somebody's butter pad.

During cars make it a habit of blasting out the seeds before serving grape-fruit, and also succeed in blasting out most of the juice. They then divide the grape-fruit off into neat, wedge-shaped partitions, which are waded into with a silverized sugar and eaten with a four-ply napkin tucked under the chin. Most people prefer their grape-fruit served in this kind of negligee, as they can before the next course freezes to the sideboard.

A few years ago nobody had heard of the grape-fruit, but was content to make a humble breakfast of toast, sugar and a relay of soft-boiled eggs. The crying need of the age, therefore it is a seedless grape-fruit, which can be eaten with careless grace and a mild flourish of a distended little finger.

The System. When all the town is swathed in heat and asphalt melting in the street. Keep cool. When it's so hot you can't keep ice. And can't buy more at any price. Just follow this profound advice. Keep cool.

When there is not a breath of air, That you can dig up anywhere, Keep cool. When it's a hundred in the shade, When wits are frazzled and are Be not discouraged or dismayed, Keep cool.

The Diary of a Bonehead. There are other ways of finding trouble than by being president of Mexico, believes your Uncle Dudley, who knows. One of the best ways is by getting up a family picnic. We got one up this year. We were the angors of the occasion and the event came off today.

It was an experiment, in the first place. We wanted to see just how many of the relatives would speak to one another. We found out.

Never again. The next time we want to spend a pleasant day we are going to go and hunt up some nice quiet boiler shop where the hammering is not so loud as it is at a family picnic. If we can't find a boiler shop, we are going to go and hunt up a nice choice Central American revolution and spend the day on the battlefield. On a battlefield they don't shoot any thing at you but bullets.

Relatives who don't like one another are always nasty nice. That's the way our picnic started out. They were all so nice to one another that they didn't act natural and a cloud about the size of a woman's tongue appeared on the horizon. Or the way out it was the calm before the storm and everybody made such a point of being polite that they made it absolutely offensive. Every good word that is said to contain ten per cent sincerity and ninety per cent sarcasm and by the time we got to the picnic grounds the cloud that had appeared on the horizon in the early morning now enveloped the entire heaven and there wasn't a bright spot anywhere in the picnic party.

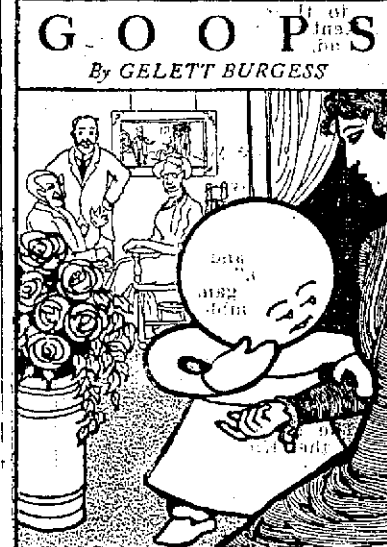

Every branch of our more or less illustrious family brought its own picnic basket and ate out of it, drawing itself away from all of the other branches of the family. Thus, when we sat down to dinner, our family was scattered until it covered fifteen acres of ground.

The relatives who were remembered in grandfather's will went out to the picnic grounds in their St-Andre cover, seven-passenger baby-wagon Oshkosh and the poor relations went out on the street car. Can anyone in his wildest dreams imagine these two factions getting together and having a good time at a picnic?

The situation became so strained

Still Falling for It. It's a great little world. The man who wouldn't pay a dollar for mining stock or invest in bonds that he'll never read or try to get the Spanish hearse out of prison in Madrid, is usually the first one up to crowd his money on the man who is selling tickets for the concert after the circus.

ANNA GRIMES (Do You Whisperate?)

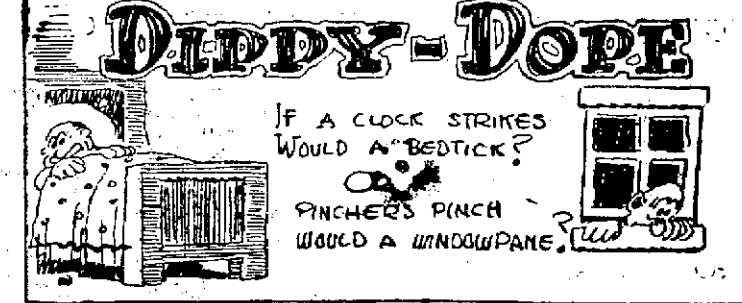

Fairly polite is Anna Grimes.

But still she is Anna Grimes.

And when she whispers to a friend, She's very likely to offend;

For other people present hate A' Goop who likes to whisperate!

Don't Be A Goop!

At three o'clock in the afternoon that two old maid aunts who had lived together in harmony for forty years had a quarrel between themselves and decided to build a two-foot partition in their house.

Personally, a pleasant time was had. We pulled nine kids out of the river, sat down in a custard pie, accumulated a large population of chiggers and walked four miles for water which the relatives didn't dare drink for fear it was poisoned.

By five o'clock in the afternoon every member of the party hated us with an undying antagonism for having organized the picnic.

Never again. We are going to bury these clothes and forget the incident if we can.

Relatives will happen in the best of families, but if you meet them in a social way, it is your own fault.
